

Cookies Policy

We do not collect any personally identifying information via forms or any other input method on our website. Our website does not set any cookies, which are text files placed on your computer or track any user data or behaviour using cookies, or any other method.

Our webhosting service provider does not set or use any cookies on any client websites for any purpose.

However, this website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", to help the website analyze how users use the site.

The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf.

Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google.
